

turf products

2017 Service Schools

Hybrid Mowers

Classes offered: January 24th, January 25th

Participants will gain knowledge in proper maintenance and troubleshooting of the Hybrid System found on the Greensmaster 3320, 3420 and the Reelmaster 5010H.

Quality of Cut

Class offered: January 26th

Attendees will uncover challenges faced within today's turf environment, as it relates to Quality of Cut conditions.

Tier 4 Engines

Classes offered: February 21st, February 22nd, February 23rd

Class will cover Tier 4 designed engines, maintenance and troubleshooting tips to assist in properly diagnosing the technologies used in Tier 4 designed engines.

Hydraulic Troubleshooting

Classes offered: March 14th, March 15th

Course will cover Hydraulic Principle, Maintenance and Troubleshooting with focus on Schematic reading and what tools are available to assist you with properly diagnosing and determining root cause.

Electrical Troubleshooting

Class offered: March 16th

Course will cover electrical systems found on today's Toro equipment; students will develop the foundation needed to diagnose and troubleshoot today's electronic circuitry. Course will also go over Schematic reading.

There is an $85.00 fee for classes per person
Includes Lunch
Classes start at 8:00am

Register today
888-442-9910 or servicedept@turfproductscorp.com

Classes are held at Turf Products LLC
157 Moody Road
Enfield, CT 06083

